Dear Editors

We have submitted our manuscript titled "Antioxidant Activity of Methanol Extract from Several Indonesian Green Teas" on Nov 28th 2017. This was sent via your website. However, the status of our manuscript remains unchanged up till now (status: 'in review'). Below, we attached our first correspondence with you.

We understand that you must be very busy. However, we were wondering about the progress of our manuscript. We would appreciate if you could let us know about this.

Thanks and regards
